E. Liability and Indemnity

1. It is hereby acknowledged and agreed that except as mandatory implied by statutes, including the Competition and Consumer Act (2011), the University of Melbourne shall not be liable for any losses, claims or damages of any nature whatsoever which arise out of or in connection with the supply of any services by the University of Melbourne through its library or any materials provided as part of those services. To the extent that liability may not be excluded, the liability of the University of Melbourne is limited, at the option of the University of Melbourne, to either supply the services again or to pay the cost of having them supplied again.
2. Due to the extensive nature of written works available, in no event does the University of Melbourne warrant the completeness of any library services.
3. The requester of the services indemnifies the University of Melbourne against all loss, claims and damages of any nature whatsoever which arise out of or in connection with the use of, by the requester of the services, or the reliance by the requester of the services or by any third party on the services or materials provided by the University of Melbourne to the requester of the services.
4. The requester of the services agrees to pay to the University of Melbourne the costs incurred and all charges in relation to the provision of the services requested according to the table of current standard charges available at the University of Melbourne Library.
